BILL

To amend the Films and Publications Act, 1996 so as to insert certain definitions; to amend the composition and provide for the functions and powers of the Board; to provide for the appointment and powers of compliance officers; to provide for the composition, functions, powers and management of classification office; to repeal certain Schedules to the Act; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Amendment of section 1 of Act 25 of 1961

1. Section 1 of the Films and Publications Act, 1996 (Act No. 65 of 1996), hereinafter referred to as “the principal Act”, is hereby amended by—

(a) the insertion after the definition of “chief executive officer” of the following definition:

“child abuse’, for the purposes of this Act, means the use of a child in the creation, making or production of child pornography or child abuse images or for sexual exploitation and includes exhibiting or showing images of sexual conduct to a child or exposing or encouraging a child to witness sexual conduct;”;

- (b) the insertion after the definition of “classification committee” of the following definition:

“classification office’ means the office established by the Board in terms of section 4A(1)(i);”; and

- (c) the insertion after the definition of “Internet address” of the following definition:

“interactive computer game’ means a game in which the way the game proceeds and the results achieved at various stages of the game is determined in response to the decisions, inputs and direct involvement of the player;”.

Substitution of section 2 of Act 65 of 1996

2. The following section is hereby substituted for section 2 of the principal Act:

“Objects of Act

2. The objects of this Act shall be to—

- (a) regulate the creation, production, possession, broadcasting and distribution of certain publications, [and certain] films and interactive computer games by means of classification [, the imposition of age restrictions and the giving of consumer advice,] with due regard [being had in particular] to the protection of children from potentially disturbing, harmful or age-inappropriate materials and against sexual exploitation or degradation in publications, films, interactive computer games, mobile cellular telephones and on the Internet; and
- (b) make the [exploitative] use of children in pornographic publications, films, interactive computer games, mobile cellular telephones or on the Internet, punishable.”.

Amendment of section 4 of Act 65 of 1996

3. Section 4 of the principal Act is hereby amended by—

- (a) the substitution for the heading of the following heading:

“Composition of Board”;

- (b) by the substitution for paragraph (b) in subsection (1) of the following paragraph:

“(b) the chief executive officer and such number of [senior personnel, chief examiners and examiners] members as the Minister may determine having regard to the [likely volume of applications and complaints which will be submitted to the Board in terms of this Act] need to ensure that the membership of the Board is broadly representative of the South African community and relevant stakeholders.”;

(c) by the deletion of subsection (3); and

(d) by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection:

“(4) Decisions of the Board [and executive committee] shall be taken by a majority of votes, and in the case of an equality of votes the chairperson of the meeting shall have a casting vote.”.

Insertion of section 4A in Act 65 of 1996

4. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 4:

“Functions and Powers of Board

4A. (1) The Board shall—

- (a) in consultation with the Minister, issue directives of general application on matters of national policy consistent with the purpose of this Act;
- (b) establish controls for financial management and accountability within which the classification office must function;
- (c) determine and issue a Code of conduct for members of the Board;
- (d) oversee the management of resources to ensure that resources are not abused, misused or wasted;
- (e) act as an appeals tribunal in inter-personal disputes or when management structures reach a deadlock;
- (f) provide such help and assistance with programme development and management as may be within the competence of Board members;
- (g) provide public support for the organisation;
- (h) establish the classification office and appoint, in consultation with the Minister with regard to the terms and conditions, officers to manage the classification office;

- (i) determine the qualifications, experience, terms and conditions of classifiers and appoint such number as may be required, having regard to the likely volume of applications and submissions that will be made to the Board in terms of this Act;
- (j) review, periodically but at least four times a year, the administration and management of the classification office to ensure that the objectives of the Act are implemented efficiently and that it discharges its obligations and responsibilities in accordance with this Act; and
- (k) exercise and perform such other functions, powers and duties as are conferred or imposed on the Board by or under this Act or any other enactment.

(2) In considering the suitability of any person for such appointment as contemplated in subsection (1)(h), the Board shall have regard not only to the person's personal attributes and integrity, but also to the person's qualifications, knowledge and experience in the different aspects of matters likely to come before the classification office.

(3) In appointing classifiers as contemplated in subsection (1)(i), the Board shall ensure broad representation of the South African community in terms of race, ethnicity, gender and religion and may invite the public to nominate persons who may be considered suitable candidates for appointment as classifiers.

(4) Meetings of the Board shall be convened by the chief executive officer, at the request of or in consultation with the chairperson and shall be held at the premises of the Board unless, for bona fide reasons, the chairperson directs that a meeting be held at another venue.”.

Amendment of section 5 of Act 65 of 1996

5. Section 5 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for the heading of the following heading:

“Composition of Appeal Board”.

Insertion of section 5A in Act 65 of 1996

6. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 5:

“Powers and duties of Appeal Board

5A. The Appeal Board shall—

- (a) hear and determine any appeal lodged in terms of this Act; and
 (b) have such powers as are necessary to determine the procedures and forms for the submission of appeals and the procedures to be followed at the hearing of appeals submitted to it.”.

Amendment of section 6 of Act 65 of 1996

6. Section 6 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

“(3) The Minister, or the advisory panel may invite members of the public to [propose] nominate persons who may be considered for appointment.”.

Amendment of section 7 of Act 65 of 1996

7. The following subparagraph is hereby substituted for subparagraph (i) of paragraph (h) of section 7 of the principal Act:

“(i) in the Republic, of theft, fraud, forgery and uttering a forged document, perjury or any offence under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1958 (Act No. 6 of 1958), the Corruption Act, 1992 (Act No. 94 of 1992); or Part 1 to 4, or [section] sections 17, 20 or 21 (in so far as it relates to the aforementioned offences) of Chapter 2 of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, 2004 (Act No. 12 of 2004);”.

Amendment of section 9 of Act 65 of 1996

8. Section 9 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection:

“(4) A member of the Board or [Review] Appeal Board shall vacate his or her office when any of the circumstances referred to in section 7 become applicable in respect of him or her, and the Minister, upon information given to him or her by the [Chief] chief executive officer or the chairperson of the [Review] Appeal Board, issues a certificate to that effect.”.

Insertion of section 9A in Act 65 of 1996

9. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 9:

“Composition, functions, powers and management of Classification Office

9A. (1) The classification office shall consist of the chief executive officer and such number of officers as may be determined by the Board having regard to the functions, powers and responsibilities of the classification office.

(2) The functions of the classification office shall be to—

- (a) examine and determine the classification of any film, interactive computer game or publication submitted to the Board under this Act;
- (b) determine, in accordance with any classification guidelines established by the Board, the conditions to be imposed on the distribution, exhibition and possession of any film, interactive computer game or publication classified in terms of this Act;
- (c) determine any application made under sections 22 and 23 of this Act for an exemption from any provision of this Act in respect of any film, interactive computer game or publication;
- (d) determine any application made under section 18(1)(b) of this Act for registration as a distributor or exhibitor of films, interactive computer games or publications;
- (e) establish, in consultation with all relevant stakeholders, classification guidelines to be used in determining what is disturbing, harmful or age-inappropriate for children in films, interactive computer games and publications;
- (f) as soon as possible after the lapse of every consecutive period of 12 months, publish the classification guidelines and make an appeal to all relevant stakeholders to make representations concerning the classification guidelines and to amend them on the basis of such representations;

- (g) make regulations relating to—
- (i) the procedures and forms for making any application or submission under this Act;
 - (ii) the form of any certificate to be issued in terms of this Act;
 - (iii) the format and details of the display or exhibition of decisions of the Board with respect to films, interactive computer games and publications classified in terms of this Act; and
 - (iv) any matter required and permitted to be prescribed and, generally, procedures aimed at the effective achievement of the objects of this Act: Provided that such regulations shall be approved by the Board.

(3) The classification office shall have all such powers as are reasonably necessary to enable it to carry out the duties and exercise all the functions necessary for the effective achievement of the objects of this Act.

(4) The chief executive officer shall be responsible for all matters relating to the administration and management of the classification office, including—

- (a) the appointment of administrative staff;
- (b) appointment of compliance officers;
- (c) the allocation of spheres of responsibilities among and between management officers; and
- (d) the submission of the annual report and financial statement as prescribed by the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999) and Treasury Regulations.”.

Substitution of section 10 of Act 65 of 1996

10. The following section is hereby substituted for section 10 of the principal Act:

“Classification committees

10. (1) The [executive committee] classification office shall appoint so many classification committees as often as may be necessary, each of which shall consist of [a chief examiner, designated by the executive committee, and at least one examiner, so designated,] at least three classifiers, one of whom shall be designated the chairperson to perform or carry out with regard to films and publications, referred to them by the chief executive officer in terms of sections 16(3) and 18(2), the functions and duties assigned to or imposed on them in terms of sections 16(4) and 18(3).

(2) A decision of a classification committee shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be a decision of the Board.”.

Amendment of section 13 of Act 65 of 1996

11. Section 13 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) The chief executive officer shall be the accounting officer [in respect of all money referred to in subsection (1)].”.

Insertion of section 15A in Act 65 of 1996

12. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 15:

“Functions and powers of compliance officers

15A. (1) A compliance officer may, for the purpose of—

- (a) advising distributors and exhibitors of films and interactive computer games of the requirements of this Act with regard to the distribution or exhibition of films and interactive computer games; and
- (b) ensuring that all films and interactive computer games offered for sale or hire by a distributor have been classified in terms of this Act and that all such films and interactive computer games display, in the prescribed manner, the classification reference number, the age restriction, consumer advice and such other conditions as may have been imposed on the distribution of such films and interactive computer games by the Board, enter any premises on or in which the business of the sale, hire or exhibition of films or interactive computer games is being conducted, and—

- (i) request the production of a certificate of registration as a distributor or exhibitor of films or interactive computer games issued by the Board and, where relevant, a licence to conduct the business of adult premises issued by a licensing authority as contemplated in section 24 of this Act;
- (ii) examine or inspect any premises being used to conduct the business of adult premises for compliance with the conditions contemplated in section 24(2) of this Act;
- (iii) examine or inspect any film or interactive computer games being offered for sale or hire for compliance with the requirements of the Act with regard to the distribution of that film or interactive computer game; and
- (iv) order that films, interactive computer games and publications being offered for sale or hire that do not comply either with the requirements of this Act or any decision of the Board with regard to the distribution of that film, interactive computer game or publication, be removed from any display or offer for sale or hire until such products comply with the requirements of this Act or with decisions of the Board with regard to their distribution.

(2) When performing any function in terms of this section, a compliance officer may request and use the services or assistance of any police officer.”.

Substitution of section 16 of Act 65 of 1996

- 13. The following section is hereby substituted for section 16 of the principal Act:
“Classification of publications

16. (1) Any person may request, in the prescribed manner, that a publication being distributed in the Republic be classified in terms of this section.

(2) Any person who creates, produces, publishes or advertises for distribution or exhibition in the Republic any publication that contains visual presentations, descriptions or representations of or amounting to—

- (a) sexual conduct;
- (b) propaganda for war;
- (c) incitement to imminent violence; or
- (d) the advocacy of hatred based on any identifiable group characteristic, shall submit in the prescribed manner such publication for examination and classification to the classification office before such publication is distributed, exhibited, offered or advertised for distribution or exhibition.

(3) The chief executive officer shall refer any publication submitted to the classification office under subsections (1) or (2) to a classification committee, consisting of at least three classifiers, one of whom shall be designated the chairperson, for examination and classification of the publication.

(4) The classification committee shall, in the prescribed manner, examine a publication referred to it and shall classify the publication—

- (a) as a “refused classification” if the publication contains visual presentation, description or representation of—
 - (i) child abuse, propaganda for war or incitement to imminent violence; or
 - (ii) the advocacy of hatred based on any identifiable group characteristic, unless, judged within context, the publication is a bona fide documentary or is a publication of scientific and literary merit on a matter of public interest;
- (b) as XX if it contains visual presentations or graphic descriptions or representations of—
 - (i) explicit sexual conduct which violates or shows disrespect for the right to human dignity of any person;
 - (ii) conduct or an act which is degrading of human beings;or

- (iii) conduct or an act which constitutes incitement to or encourages or promotes harmful behaviour, unless, judged within context, the publication is a bona fide documentary or is a publication of scientific, literary or artistic merit, in which event the publication shall be classified X18 or classified with reference to the guidelines relating to the protection of children from exposure to disturbing, harmful and age-inappropriate materials;
- (c) classify the publication as X18 if it contains visual presentations or descriptions or representations of—
- (i) explicit sexual conduct,
 - (ii) the explicit infliction of sexual or domestic violence, or
 - (iii) the explicit effects of extreme violence,
- unless, judged within context, the publication is a bona fide documentary or is a publication of scientific, literary or artistic merit, in which event the publication shall be classified with reference to the guidelines relating to the protection of children from exposure to disturbing, harmful and age-inappropriate materials; or
- (d) if the publication contains visual presentations or descriptions or representations which may be disturbing or harmful to, or age-inappropriate for, children, classify that publication, with reference to the relevant guidelines, by the imposition of appropriate age-restrictions and such other conditions as may be necessary to protect children in the relevant age categories from exposure to such materials.

(5) Where a publication has been classified as a “refused classification” or has been classified XX or X18, the chief executive officer shall cause that classification decision to be published by Notice in the Gazette, together with the reasons for the decision.”.

Amendment of section 17 of Act 65 of 1996

14. Section 17 of Act 65 of 1996 is hereby deleted.

Substitution of section 18 of Act 65 of 1996

15. The following section is hereby substituted for section 18 of the principal Act:

“Classification of films and interactive computer games

18. (1) Any person who intends to distribute or exhibit any film or interactive computer game in the Republic shall in the prescribed manner with the prescribed fee—

- (a) register with the Board as a distributor or exhibitor of films or interactive computer games; and
- (b) submit for examination and classification any film or interactive computer game that has not been classified or exempted or approved in terms of this Act or the Publications Act, 1974 (Act No. 42 of 1974).

(2) The chief executive officer shall refer any film or interactive computer game submitted to the Board under subsection (1)(b) to a classification committee, consisting of at least three classifiers, one of whom shall be designated the chairperson, for examination and classification.

(3) The classification committee shall, in the prescribed manner, examine a film or interactive computer game referred to it and shall classify film or interactive computer game—

- (a) as a “refused classification” if the film or interactive computer game—
 - (i) contains depictions or sequences of child abuse, propaganda for war or incites imminent violence; or
 - (ii) advocates hatred based on any identifiable group characteristic unless the film, judged within context, is a bona fide documentary or a film of scientific merit on a matter of public interest;
- (b) as XX if it depicts—
 - (i) explicit sexual conduct which violates or shows disrespect for the right to human dignity of any person;
 - (ii) conduct or an act which is degrading of human beings; or
 - (iii) conduct or an act which incites, encourages or promotes harmful behaviour,

unless, judged within context, the film is a bona fide documentary or is a film of scientific, dramatic or artistic merit, in which event the film shall be classified X18 or classified with reference to the relevant guidelines relating to the protection of children from exposure to disturbing, harmful and age-inappropriate materials;

(c) classify the film or interactive computer game as X18 if it depicts—

- (i) explicit sexual conduct;
- (ii) the explicit infliction of sexual or domestic violence; or
- (iii) the explicit effects of extreme violence,

unless, judged within context, the film is a bona fide documentary or is a film of scientific, dramatic or artistic merit, in which event the publication shall be classified with reference to the relevant guidelines relating to the protection of children from exposure to disturbing, harmful and age-inappropriate materials; or

(d) if a film or interactive computer game contains scenes which may be disturbing or harmful to, or age-inappropriate for, children, classify that film with reference to the relevant guidelines established by the Board, by the imposition of appropriate age-restrictions and such other conditions as may be necessary to protect children in the relevant age categories from exposure to such materials.

(4) Where a film or interactive computer game has been classified as a “refused classification” or has been classified as XX or X18, the chief executive officer shall cause the classification decision to be published by Notice in the Gazette, together with the reasons for the decision.”.

Insertion of sections 18A and 18B in Act 65 of 1996

16. The following sections are hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 18:

“Display of classification decisions

18A. (1) Where a film, interactive computer game or publication has been classified or exempted from classification in terms of this Act—

- (a) if it is a film or interactive computer game approved for sale or hire, display the following certificate conspicuously and clearly visible on or through the cover or packaging of the cassette or holder of the film or interactive computer game—

‘CERTIFICATE OF CLASSIFICATION

Certificate of Classification No.:

Classification and Consumer Advice:

Any other condition imposed:’.

- (b) if it is a publication, display either on the front of the cover or on the wrapper of the publication, where applicable, the following information—
- (i) classification and consumer advice; or
 - (ii) any other condition aimed at the protection of children;
- (c) if it is a film approved for exhibition in public, display on all advertisements and illustrated exhibitions associated with that film the classification, consumer advice and any other condition imposed by the Board with respect to the exhibition of that in public.

(2) The Board may prescribe by regulations the format, including size and design, as well as the manner of the display of certificates of classification on films, interactive computer games and publications approved for distribution.

Re-classification

“18B. Any person may, after a period of two years from the date when a film, interactive computer game or publication was first examined and classified in terms of this Act, apply, in the prescribed manner, for a less restrictive classification of that film, interactive computer game or publication.”.

Amendment of section 19 of Act 65 of 1996

17. Section 19 of the principal Act is hereby deleted.

Amendment of section 20 of Act 65 of 1996

18. Section 20 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) Any person who has applied for the classification of a film, interactive computer game, publication or any person who has lodged a complaint with the Board that a publication be referred for examination and classification or any person who has applied for registration as a distributor or exhibitor of films or any person who has had a decision rendered by the Board in respect of any matter in terms of this Act, may appeal such decision or finding of the Board to the Appeal Board in the prescribed manner.”;

(b) by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

“(3) The [Review] Appeal Board may refuse the appeal and confirm the decision in question, or allow the appeal, either wholly or in part, and give such decision as the Board [executive committee] should in its view, have given, and amend the classification of the [publication or] film, interactive computer game or publication, specifying the [clause] section of [Schedule 1 or 6] the Act upon which the classification is in terms of its decision based, and may impose other conditions in respect of the distribution or exhibition of the [publication or] film, interactive computer game or publication.”;

(c) by the substitution for subsection (4) of the following subsection:

“(4) The chief executive officer shall in the case of a successful appeal against a decision whereby an application for [a] registration, exemption, permit or licence is refused, issue the requisite certificate of registration, exemption, permit or licence, subject to the conditions, if any, imposed by the [Review] Appeal Board.”.

Amendment of section 21 of Act 65 of 1996

19. Section 21 of the principal Act is hereby deleted.

Amendment of section 22 of Act 65 of 1996

20. Section 22 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:
 “(1) The [executive committee] Board may on receipt of an application in the prescribed form, subject to such conditions as it may deem fit, exempt in writing any person or institution from [sections 25, 27 and 28] sections 24A or 24B if it has good reason to believe that bona fide purposes will be served by such an exemption.”;
- (b) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:
 “(2) Where the [executive committee] Board after due inquiry has good reason to believe that the conditions of an exemption are not complied with or that the bona fide purposes are no longer present, it may withdraw the exemption.”;
- (c) by the deletion of subsection (3).

Amendment of section 23 of Act 65 of 1996

21. Section 23 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:
 “(1) The provisions of [section 26(1)(a) and (b)] section 24A(1), (2)(a) and (3) shall not prohibit the exhibition of any film or interactive computer game to any person in the course of his or her business as a distributor of films or interactive computer games or to the representative of such distributor acting for the purposes of such business.”;
- (b) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:
 “(2) The [executive committee] Board may in its discretion and subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose, either by means of a permit, issued in the prescribed form, or by notice in the Gazette, exempt from [section 26] classification any particular film, any particular class of films, or any film intended for exhibition to a particular group of persons or under any particular circumstances, and may at any time, after due inquiry, withdraw any such permit or exemption: Provided that if such exemption was granted by Notice in the Gazette, the chief executive officer shall by Notice withdraw the exemption.”; and

- (c) by the deletion of subsection (3).

Amendment of section 24 of Act 65 of 1996

22. Section 24 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) Any person may [notwithstanding the provisions of section 25(b), 26(1)(b) or 28(2),] exhibit in public or distribute any film, interactive computer game or a publication [or film] classified as X18 in terms of a decision of the Board which has been published in the Gazette [as X18 or a publication which falls within Schedule 2 read with Schedule 5,] if such person is the holder of a licence to conduct the business of adult premises, issued by a licensing authority in terms of section 2, read with item 2 of Schedule 1, of the Business Act, 1991 (Act No. 71 of 1991), and if such exhibition or distribution takes place from within premises forming part of a building.”;

- (b) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) Any exemption granted in terms of subsection (1) may be suspended by the [executive committee] Board for a period not exceeding one year, if the [executive committee] Board, after the holding of an inquiry, is satisfied that—

- (a) notices stating that no person under the age of 18 years may enter or be within such premises were not displayed, in the manner prescribed by the Board, at all entrances to the premises concerned;
- (b) a film, interactive computer game or publication was displayed or [a film was] exhibited within such premises, or in a display window or door forming part thereof, in such a manner or in such a position that the film, interactive computer game or publication [or film] could be seen from any point outside the premises concerned;
- (c) any person under the age of 18 years was allowed to enter or be within the premises concerned; or

- (d) any film, interactive computer game or publication [or film] classified as X18 in terms of a decision of the Board, published in the Gazette, was delivered by the person licensed in terms of subsection (1) to conduct such premises—
- (i) to a person who is not the holder of a similar licence; or
 - (ii) in a manner which was not in accordance with regulations made by the Board, with the aim of preventing the delivery of such films, interactive computer games or publications [and films] to persons under the age of 18 years.”.

Insertion of sections 24A, 24B and 24C in Act 65 of 1996

23. The following sections are hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 24:

“Prohibitions, offences and penalties on distribution and exhibition of films, interactive computer games and publications

“24A. (1) Any person who knowingly distributes or exhibits in public a film or interactive computer game without first having been registered with the Board as a distributor or exhibitor of films or interactive computer games shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(2) Any person who knowingly broadcasts, distributes, exhibits in public, offers for sale or hire or advertises for exhibition, sale or hire any film, interactive computer game or a publication referred to in section 16(2) of this Act which has—

- (a) not been classified by the Board;
- (b) been classified as a “refused classification”; or
- (c) been classified as XX, shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) Any person, not being the holder of a licence to conduct the business of adult premises and not being registered with the Board as a distributor or exhibitor of films or interactive computer games, and who knowingly broadcasts, distributes, exhibits in public, offers for exhibition, sale or hire or advertises for sale or hire any film, interactive game or a publication which has been classified X18 shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(4) Any person who knowingly distributes any film, interactive computer game or publication classified X18 or which contains depictions, descriptions or sequences of sexual conduct to a person under the age of 18 years shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or to both to a fine and such imprisonment.

(5) Any person who knowingly distributes a film, interactive computer game or a publication which has been classified by the Board without displaying, clearly and conspicuously and in the manner prescribed by regulations made under this Act, the classification reference number, the age restriction, consumer advice and any other condition imposed on the distribution of that film, interactive computer game or publication shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(6) Any person who knowingly advertises a film or interactive computer game in any medium without indicating, clearly and conspicuously so as to be plainly visible to the public, the age restriction, consumer advice and any other condition imposed on the film or interactive computer game being advertised, shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(7) Any person who knowingly and without the prior written approval of the Board exhibits in public during the same screening session, or distributes on the same cassette or disc of a film or interactive computer game, a trailer advertising a film or an interactive computer game with a more restrictive classification than the featured film or interactive computer game, shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

Prohibition, offences and penalties on possession of films, interactive computer games and publications

24B. (1) Any person who—

- (a) unlawfully possesses;
- (b) creates, produces or in any way contributes to, or assists in the creation or production of;
- (c) imports or in any way takes steps to procure, obtain or access or in any way knowingly assists in, or facilitates, the importation, procurement, obtaining or accessing of; or
- (d) knowingly makes available, exports, broadcasts or in any way distributes or causes to be made available, exported, broadcast or distributed or assists in making available, exporting, broadcasting or distributing, any film, interactive computer game or publication which contains depictions, descriptions or sequences of child pornography or the abuse of children or which advocates, advertises, encourages or promotes child pornography or the sexual exploitation of children shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon conviction, to be sentenced to imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten years.

(2) Any person who, having knowledge of the commission of any offence under subsection (1) or having reason to suspect that such an offence has been or is being committed, and fails to—

- (a) report such knowledge or suspicion as soon as possible to an official any South African law enforcement agency; or
