

REPORTERS WITHOUT BORDERS

FOR PRESS FREEDOM

Reporters Without Borders, the worldwide press freedom organization, is seeking a bright and talented intern for its DC office.

The intern selected will be assisting RWB Washington DC Director in distributing reports and press releases to the media about violations of press freedom, aiming for regular coverage, and publicizing the Jailed Journalists Support Day. The intern will help build media lists and contacts and help organize events to promote freedom of the press, including the upcoming Press Freedom Index. He will also do some research on press freedom issues in the United States and participate in lobbying efforts.

He/she has broad knowledge of international relations, plenty of energy and powers of persuasion and excellent writing and human relations skills. Prior experience in these areas will be an advantage.

Position to be filled as soon as possible.

Full time preferred but part-time position possible if at least 2 or 3 days a week. No Stipend.
